Dear Koko,

I hope you are well.

Please find attached the layout of the paper to be published in the issue of the journal Corporate Law & Governance Review.

There are several things I would ask you to do by May 24:

- 1) Please see the pdf file. There are some comments that need your attention. Please address the comments.
- 2) Please let me know if there are any other comments or corrections with regard to the current form of the paper.

If you are satisfied with the current form of the paper, please confirm that you agree to publish the paper in its current form. Thank you.

Please kindly confirm the receipt of this email. Thank you.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Best regards,

Daryna

Dear Daryna,

Thank you for your email. I apologize for any inconvenience caused, and I appreciate your patience. I have reviewed the comments and revisions in the PDF and made the necessary changes to the layout.

The author's name has been corrected from "Aarce" to "Aartje," and the department name has been revised accordingly. I have thoroughly addressed all the comments provided and made the changes you asked for.

If you have any further questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Thank you again for your understanding and cooperation. I look forward to hearing from you back from you.

Best regards,

Koko

Dear Koko,

I hope you are fine.

This is just to kindly remind you that we expect the proofread layout.

Could you please let me know if you had a chance to address the comments provided in the pdf. I would greatly appreciate it if you could provide your responses by June 6.

Thank you in advance.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

I'm looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Daryna
