Dear

Editor Jurnal Pendidikan (Al-Ishlah)

I have read and used scientific articles published in AL-ISHLAH.

The performance of the AL-ISHLAH was excellent, and the published article helped me conduct research and write scientific reports.

I am Maksimus Bisa, from Universitas Kristen Indonesia, Jakarta, Indonesia.

I have completed a scientific article entitled "Sports Education as a Means of Building Student Character: Values and Benefits."

I hope this article can be published in the AL-ISHLAH because exciting findings in the scientific report can become new treasures in science, especially in education sciences.

I am willing to go through the review process following AL-ISHLAH standards.

Best Regards,

Maksimus Bisa

Dear

Maksimus Bisa

Universitas Kristen Indonesia, Jakarta, Indonesia

Thank you for submitting the manuscript to AL-ISHLAH.

I have completed our evaluation, and the reviewers recommend reconsidering the manuscript following minor revisions. Please resubmit the revised manuscript by April 21th, 2023, or ask whether an alternate date would be acceptable. We invite you to send it back after addressing the comments below.

When revising the manuscript, consider carefully all issues mentioned in the reviewers' comments: outline every change made in response to their comments and provide suitable explanations for any remarks not addressed. Please also note that the revised submission may need to be reviewed.

To submit a revised manuscript, please log in as an author at this email, and navigate to the "Revision" folder. AL-ISHLAH values team contribution, and I look forward to receiving the revised manuscript.

Editor and reviewer comments:

Reviewer:

1. Clarity of Purpose: The abstract effectively conveys the purpose of the study in exploring the values taught by sports education and their potential benefits. Consider adding a sentence specifying the relevance of character development in the broader educational context.
2. Methodology Clarity: The qualitative research approach using interviews and observations is appropriate for the study's objectives. Provide a brief overview of the sample size and selection criteria to enhance transparency.
3. Thematic Analysis: The mention of thematic analysis is appreciated. It would be helpful to include a sentence on the main themes that emerged from the data, giving readers a glimpse into the depth of your findings.
4. Explicit Findings: While teamwork, leadership, determination, and sportsmanship are mentioned, consider providing more explicit examples or quotes from the interviews to illustrate how these values manifest in students during sports education.
5. Addressing Potential Bias: Acknowledge and discuss any potential bias in the data collection or analysis. This could include addressing the limitations of relying on self-reported data and the steps taken to mitigate bias.
6. Linking Values to Life Skills: Strengthen the connection between the identified values and their practical applications in students' daily lives. Explain how skills learned through sports education are transferable to real-world situations.
7. Diverse Perspectives: Ensure that the study reflects a diverse range of perspectives. Consider discussing how different sports or cultural backgrounds might influence the acquisition of values and benefits.
8. Clarity of Purpose: The abstract effectively conveys the purpose of the study in exploring the values taught by sports education and their potential benefits. Consider adding a sentence specifying the relevance of character development in the broader educational context.

9. Discussion of Implications: Include a section discussing the broader implications of your findings for educational policy and practice. How can educators and policymakers leverage sports education for character development?
10. Concluding with Impact: End the abstract with a strong conclusion summarizing the study's main contributions. Clearly state how the findings contribute to the existing knowledge on sports education and character building.

I hope you can make improvements as soon as possible and send the revised article again via this email.
