Note	From
Several ideas such as the challenges of internet connectivity, motivation, and interaction are repeated across the background, literature review, and discussion. However, these repetitions could be reduced by merging overlapping paragraphs and referring back to earlier points instead of restating them. In addition, the writer needs to notice some minor grammatical issues and long sentences which occasionally reduce clarity. Simplifying sentence structures and maintaining consistent academic tone would improve readability.	srisna 2026-01-14 05:38 AM
