

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

4.1 Conclusion

According to the writer, the internship program is an important activity for final year students. Through the internship program the students have the provision and description of the real world of work. The internship program can also be an opportunity for students to apply the knowledge they have acquired during lectures.

According to the writer, the introduction of English in PAUD is very important. Children must be introduced to English which at present, English is an International Language. However, the introduction of English to early childhood must be a fun way so that they can accept English easily. Therefore, from the experience of the internship program at ZIZA Rumah Bermain dan Belajar, the writer concludes that being a teacher must have high creativity to manage the class so that students are attracted and excited when the teacher teaches and students are also happy with the lessons taught by the teacher. In addition, the teacher must also choose the right method to apply in the classroom. From the methods the writer have used, the demonstration method is the most appropriate method to be applied to early childhood.

The internship program at ZIZA Rumah Bermain dan Belajar will be an unforgettable experience for the writer. Many knowledge that the writer receives, especially how to teach early childhood, how to understand the character of different students, and also teach children with methods that can be applied properly.
