Dear Hotner

I hope you are fine.

Starting from 2016 the team of Virtus Interpress invites the authors who published in our journals and all other experts in corporate governance to join our initiative - Global Repository of Corporate Governance Experts.

At the moment nearly 1000 experts from more than 65 countries joined our repository and this number increases.

Having a profile in the Repository the experts in corporate governance can easily find the colleagues to contact about joint projects, share ideas in research, promote personal profile to have more carrier perspectives.

We provide 2 types of access permission level:

1) Basic (free of charge) – you can see limited parts of the profile (name, country and main research interests).

2) Full (20 EUR/year) – full profile of the expert is visible (including position, email, published papers, research projects, etc.).

We invite all experts in corporate governance to apply for inclusion in the Repository FREE of CHARGE.

If you are interested in the inclusion of your profile into the repository please contact us at [d.chorna\[at\]virtusinterpress.org](mailto:d.chorna@virtusinterpress.org)

Dear Hotner

I would like to address my greetings to you and wish you Merry Christmas and Happy New year! I hope that good health, prosperity and success will accompany you and your family during all 2018.

We know that scholarly research takes much time each year therefore we decided to save some part of this time for you in 2018 and prepared and updated several collections of the full-text open access papers published in Corporate Ownership and Control journal.

With the cordial regards,
Alex

> I think that we can accept your paper to have it published in > Corporate Ownership and Control journal.

> I remind you that this decision is conditional. To make > it final you should meet our acceptance policy (see below and the documents > enclosed) and pay by December 26.

> Acceptance fee to be paid by you covers: review, editing and > typesetting costs.
> At the same time the Publisher will cover: costs for managing the > submission of your paper, setup costs, other > ``first-copy'' costs of your paper; the cost of archiving the issue of the > journal with your paper at the journal web-site FOREVER; costs of printing > and mailing the journal to you.
> You will find in the attached document three acceptance forms. You > should choose one of them depending on when you prefer to > see your paper published in our journal. If you want to see your
