Messrs,

Thank you for the review result from the panelist and the acceptance. Throughout this email, I would like to submit my revised paper, author declaration, and proof of transfer.

This paper has been revised as per the review result, although I do apologize if it might not come as the standard form, because I have difficulties compressing it all to be under 15 pages without cutting the discussion part which was emphasizing all contradictory results to the research being made within the US market. Further advice on this is very much welcomed.

Thank you very much in advance.
