Dear Manotar Tampubolon,

Our final inspection of your article is now complete. Thank you for adhering to the Final Submission Requirements. Your article has passed our final inspection and is now queued for copy editing. Please note that this step often requires a considerable amount of time and skilled labor.

We value your patience while your article is pending in the queue and marked for copy edits. Once your copy edits have been prepared by our editorial staff, we will provide notes for author edits/corrections (if necessary). After all copy edits have been completed, a typeset proof will be provided for the author's inspection and publishing approval.
