Dear,

Marihot Simanjuntak.

The IJESSS journal Editorial board has reviewed your article, the research topic you discussed is quite impressive, then we decided to accept this article after making a minor revision on several points, to meet the IJESSS Journal Standards. I am sure you will be willing to do it. Please correct your article according to the instructions from the IJESSS Journal Standard.

- 1) Make sure that the novelty of your research is implicitly written down in the background.
- 2) The method must be clearly explained.
- 3) You need to present the previous finding at the discussion, so it is clearly stated that your research is novel.
- 4) References are good already, but the old references should be revised with the updated one.

I hope you can make improvements as soon as possible and send the revised article via this email.

Yours Sincerely,

Editor, IJESSS (International Journal of Environmental, Sustainability, and Social Sciences)
